SOCIETY ITEMS
Of Personal InterestBirthday Party For Harry Hambleton, Jr.

Master Harry Hambleton, junior, was honored on the eighth anniversary of his birth with a party from 2 to 5 o'clock, Tuesday afternoon, April 13, at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hambleton on the Hill. The invited guests included Misses Edna Hall, Lena Swarens, Syble Berry, Edward Jackson, Loyd Cockerell, Charley Reid, Robert Daugherty, Carl Swarens and Lafayette Reid.

HILL ITEMS

Mrs. Fred Ferry, of Louisville, and Mrs. Fred Herring, of Mansfield, O., were guests of Mrs. Charlie Keil on Wednesday.

Mrs. Hillary Hardin spent the week-end with her sisters, in the country Misses Mary and Lilly McGavock.

Mrs. Joe Getting and Mrs. Burden were in Owensboro, shopping on Friday.

Mrs. Sallie Morton has sold her home on the Hill to George Kinder, who will take possession soon.

Mrs. Jane Beavin, of McQuady, is visiting her son, Simon Beavin and family.

Mr. Felix Dunn, of near Hawesville returned home Thursday morning. He had been for several days at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. Mary Dunn, who died at 9:30 Thursday night. Her remains were taken to McQuady for burial.

Mr. Nat Tucker is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Burl Parson, and Mr. Parson, Vincennes, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Loyd returned home Saturday from Paducah, where they were called to attend the funeral of his brother, Luther Loyd, who died at his home in Flint, Mich.

The writer was the recipient of an Easter box from Mrs. Mary Dunn in California, containing figs and raisins of the latest growth. Although the box was delayed every thing as fresh as just gathered. 'Twas surely a treat and highly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, of Tobinsport attended services at the Lucile Memorial, Sunday.

While in town this week Dr. Williams was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Sipple.

In a short time Mrs. Sallie Morton will go to Owensboro for a protracted visit with her nephew's family, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Swaggert.

CARTER'S LANDING

Brother Union Star we have been in for forty days not sixty. Haven't been playing possum neither. Have been imitating the ground-hog just passing through a season for seriousness not foolishness. The Holy season of Lent. Mr. Stewart Weatherholt, of Moeaqua, Ill. Dear Sir: Got several hard bumps during that sleet but believe me there wasn't a bachelor girl in sight. And to think this is leap year too. Well by gum, now if you notice Proct Roberts, of Tulsa, Okla., and Joe Beavin, of Cloverport acting queer don't call the looney board. They are suffering with a disease imported from the West called the oil fever. Their fever runs as high some days as 105 in the shade.

Say girls if there are any of you that haven't got Tom Hinton's number please register. His number is 23 ring two. Tom's a member of the Bachelors Club owns a Ford pays an income tax has a heart as big as a pile driver and don't care a rap for gasoline. We met an old friend last fall from Renfrow, Okla., his name was Charlie Mattingly, son of Cap Whiskers, Jack Mattingly, of Cloverport. Charlie was known in boyhood days as Simmons. He has grown so tall since he moved to Oklahoma that he has to come down stairs to shake hands with you. We asked him why people grew so tall in Oklahoma. It's a necessity out West you are bound to keep your head above those sand storms.

We had a meeting of the Bachelors Club at the Seelbach, last Wednesday night. Just after roll call someone knocked at the door, the door keeper says whose there, "Owen Whitehouse tobaccoist of Balltown." What do you want? "I want to join the Bachelors Club." Well come in says the door keeper we will look you over. Herman O'Bryan jumped to his feet and says that man isn't eligible, he's married. Dr. Charlie Lightfoot the Club's physician was called in to examine Owen's head for flat iron, broomstick and rolling pin scars. None was found so Owen was slated for initiation. But when Owen was led out to meet the goat, the goat dropped dead out of respect for the late Paul Lewis, Austin Beavin and R. C. Carter who deserted the Bachelors Club for matrimony. We adjourned.

Joe Mulhatton, Jr.
